

J. B. RINEHART, LAWYER, IS ACCUSED OF LARCENY

Politician Is Locked in Cell—Accuser Says He Appropriated $18,000, Police Assert.

J. B. Rinehart, Harvard man, lawyer and amateur politician, whose efforts to down the Sullivan and Jimmy March and seize control of the Bowery have occasioned great amusement on the East Side, was held in $35,000 bail in Centre Street Police Court by Magistrate Handy today on a charge of grand larceny. Unable to furnish bail he was sent to the Tombs. His examination will be held on Monday.

Rinehart is accused of appropriating to his own purposes $18,000 entrusted to him by Frederick Bauer, a florist of Middle Village, L. I., for the purchase of stocks. Detective Green, who arrested Rinehart last night, said there were four other similar complaints against the lawyer which are now being put in shape for presentation to the courts and it was on that account that bail was fixed at more than twice the sum involved in the Bauer accusation.

THE DEARS!

At the Women's Clubs Convention they keep sending ushers around carrying signs which read "Blouse!"

JANITOR TOOK A DROP.

Fort Seven Stories With Dumb Walter When Wife Held Rope. Patrick Niland, the superintendent of an apartment house at No. 121 St. Nicholas Avenue, was called to fix the dumbwaiter at the seventh floor this morning. He sat on top of the dumbwaiter box while his wife held the ropes below. Versions of what happened after differ.

Mrs. Niland may have loosened her grip on the ropes or Niland may have slipped. The elevator too suddenly for quite unexpectedly it dropped and Niland had a fast ride down to the basement. He was taken to St. Laurence Hospital and treated for contusions.

ITCHING OF SCALP HAIR CAME OUT

Small Scales and Dandruff On Head. Some Nights Had Hardly Any Sleep. Hair Became Thin and Dry.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My trouble began with an itching of the scalp and I paid no attention to it but as the time passed I noticed small scales and an abundance of dandruff on my head. My scalp itched so that I had to scratch it which was very annoying when I was in company. Some nights I had hardly any sleep. The dandruff scaled and the hair coat collar was always full of it. My hair also became thin and dry and a lot came out when I combed it."

"I noticed Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and sent for a sample. I bought more and after using a short time I was healed." (Signed) Frank Woomley, 380 40th St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 7, 1915.

Sample Each Free by Mail With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.
